- Open up a new email – put your cursor on the BCC so no one sees all the emails
- If you don't see it, you have to add it to your email (another document below)
- And click on Paste

- And they are ALL are pasted in: (if there are any problems, you might have to add semi-colon ; after each email address, but Microsoft or Gmail should do this)

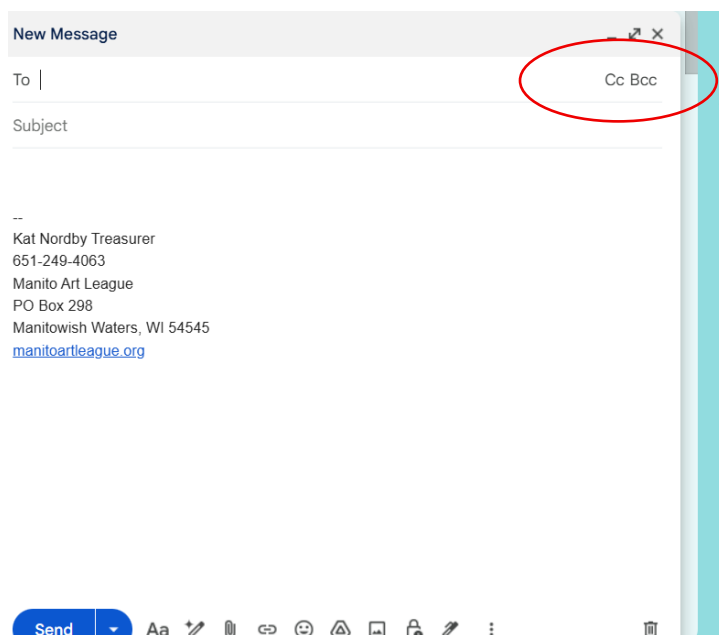

- Make sure you put in your email in the TO:

- And that's it. ❤️
- If you don't have blind copy on your email:

In Gmail:

- Click on the To: and you will see cc Bcc on the right side.

- Then click on Bcc and Paste and all the emails will be there.
